Announcements

Nursery Workers Needed—we need nursery workers to work shifts for the Spring conference. Please contact Sara Adie at nurserycoordinator@gracelife.ca.

Easter Sunday—There will be NO Sunday School and the Library will be closed.

Sunday School—Our Sunday School runs from 9:30-10:30 a.m. before the service. Please help us by following these guidelines for Sunday School:

- If you are arriving at church while Sunday School is in session, please be quiet for those in class (especially in the hallway and foyer).
- Parents, please pick up your children promptly from their classrooms at 10:30am. This allows for the teachers to be on time for the service. Children will not be dismissed to an older sibling, only to a parent.
- Please try not to distract classes by looking in the windows or visiting in the hallway. There is also Sunday School class in the upstairs library until 10:15am.

We thank you for your cooperation as we settle into our new routine here.

Introducing GraceLife Opportunities!

This is an anonymous Facebook group for GraceLife members where we can give stuff away, find free stuff, and list/find services for free. In other words everything is FREE!

Our aim is to be a blessing to one another, receive blessings from others, and in this way show our brotherly love to one another.

As this is a 'secret' group, you will need to be added by the administrator, Fenna Bredenhof, at bradfenna@hotmail.com. You can request to join with the email address linked to your Facebook page or you can private message her through Facebook at "Brad-Fenna Bredenhof".

Also, if you are not on Facebook but do want to participate, you can email the information to Fenna (a picture and description of item/service, contact name and phone number/email, etc.)

If you have any questions about "GraceLife Opportunities", please feel free to email Fenna to discuss.

We eagerly look forward to your participation!
